Snowpity, Inc., shall not have Members. All rights granted to Members under law will be vested in the members of the Board of Directors.

---

The Corporation will maintain a minimum of three (3) Directors. The initial number of Directors shall be five (5). Collectively these Directors are known as the Board of Directors.

Directors shall be natural persons eighteen (18) years of age or older. Directors must be sympathetic to the mission statement of the Corporation and must be able to name or describe the plot of at least one of their favorite episodes from the television program My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic.

Each Director shall hold office until the annual meeting, at which time the current Board of Directors may select new Directors or re-elect any existing Directors by a simple majority.

New directors may be elected to the Board of Directors provided they meet the qualifications as listed in these Bylaws and receive at least two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the vote of the existing Board of Directors. Newly appointed Directors shall not vote for other new Directors during the same meeting in which they were appointed.

The Board may elect a Chairpony of the Board from the current Directors serving.

The Chairpony of the Board shall serve a term of one (1) year which shall expire at the annual meeting.

1. If one is elected, the Chairpony will preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and shall have such other duties as may from time to time be prescribed by the Board.
2. The Chairpony, or a designee, may serve as an ex officio member of those standing and special committees established by the Board.

If the Chairpony of the Board resigns or is removed from their office as Director, then an emergency meeting of the Board of Directors may be called to select a new Chairpony of the Board.

Directors will serve without compensation for their services as Director except that they may receive reasonable reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as Director. Any payments to Directors for services performed in a capacity other than as Director shall be approved in advance in accordance with this Corporation's Conflict of Interest policies, as set forth in these Bylaws.

Subject to any limitations in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, and provisions of Florida Law, the activities and affairs of this Corporation shall be conducted and all corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the direction of the Board of Directors.

It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to:

1. Perform any and all duties imposed on them collectively or individually by Law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws;
2. Appoint and remove, employ and discharge, and, except otherwise as provided in these Bylaws, prescribe the duties and fix the compensation, if any, of all officers, agents, and employees of the corporation;
3. Supervise all officers, agents, and employees of the corporation to assure that their duties are performed properly;
4. Meet at such times and methods as required by these Bylaws.

Directors are expected to attend all regularly scheduled Board meetings and their attendance is crucial for the effective functioning of the Corporation.

The Secretary shall maintain accurate records of Board member attendance at each general meeting.

A Board member shall be deemed to have missed a meeting if they are not present through approved means.

If a Board member fails to attend three (3) consecutive regular meetings without providing a valid excuse, the Secretary shall notify the non-attending Director, citing the specific missed meetings.

The non-attending Board member shall be given an opportunity to meet with the Board to discuss the reasons for their non-attendance and propose potential solutions.

If the non-attendance issue persists after meeting with the Board member, the removal of the non-attending Board member shall be brought to a vote during a regular or special meeting as defined within these Bylaws.

The Secretary shall maintain thorough documentation of all actions taken in relation to non-attendance, including notifications, meetings, votes, and communications.

Vacancies on the Board of Directors exist on the death, resignation, or removal of any Director. Any Director who is leaving the Corporation for any reason must turn over to the Board of Directors within 72 hours any and all records of the Corporation in his possession.

Directors may be removed from office, with or without cause, by a two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote of the Board of Directors.

The notice of the meeting at which such a vote is to be taken shall state the purpose or one of the purposes of the meeting is the removal of a Director or Directors and state the specific Director or Directors sought to be removed.

In the event that any one or more Directors is removed, new Directors may be elected at the same meeting.

New Directors elected at the same meeting where one or more Directors are removed shall not be eligible to vote in either the removal or the addition of a new Director during the same meeting. Once a Director has been removed under this section, they immediately lose all voting rights.

Any Director who is removed under this provision is not eligible to stand for reelection until the next annual meeting.

Any Director may resign effective upon giving written notice to the Chairpony of the Board, the Head Pony In Charge, the Secretary, or the Board of Directors, unless the notice specifies a later time for the effectiveness of such resignation. No Director may resign if the Corporation would then be left without a duly elected Director or Directors in charge of its affairs, except upon notice to the Office of the Attorney General or other appropriate agency of the State of Florida.

If the vacancy does not cause the number of Directors to fall below the minimum of three (3), the vacancy may remain open until such time as the Board of Directors decides to fill it as prescribed in these Bylaws. If the number of Directors falls below the minimum of three (3), then:

The Chairpony of the Board may select a temporary replacement Director.

During the next meeting of the Board of Directors, the permanent Directors may vote to make the temporary replacement Director position permanent by a simple majority.

If a majority decision cannot be made and no suitable replacement Director exists, the Corporation must then be dissolved as prescribed in these Bylaws.

A quorum shall consist of two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the members of the Board of Directors then in office. Except as otherwise provided under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of Law, no business shall be considered by the Board at any meeting at which the required quorum is not present, and the only motion that the Chairpony shall entertain at such meeting is a motion to adjourn.

Every act or decision done or made by the Directors present at a meeting duly held at which a quorum is present is the act of the Board of Directors, unless the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of Law require different voting rules for approval of a matter by the Board.

Ex Officio

All Officers of the Corporation may serve as ex officio members of the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may also appoint others to serve as advisors, managers, or participants in special activities who may also serve as ex officio members of the Board of Directors. All ex officio members of the Board of Directors shall be nonvoting and do not count towards quorum. Ex officio service shall not restrict eligibility for election as a voting Director of the Corporation.

The Directors shall not be personally liable for the debts, liabilities, or other obligations of the Corporation.

The Directors and Officers of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation to the fullest extent permissible under Florida Law.

Except as otherwise provided under provisions of Law, the Board of Directors may adopt a resolution authorizing the purchase and maintenance of insurance on behalf of any agent of the Corporation (including a Director, Officer, employee, or other agent of the Corporation) against liabilities asserted against or incurred by the agent in such capacity or arising out of the agent's status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify the agent against such liability under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of Law.

The Officers of the Corporation shall consist of a Head Pony In Charge, a Secretary, and a Treasurer. The Corporation may also have one or more Background Ponies in Charge, Assistant Secretaries, Assistant Treasurers, and such other Officers with such titles as may be determined from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Officers shall be natural persons eighteen (18) years of age or older. Officers must be sympathetic to the mission statement of the Corporation and must be able to list at least one of their favorite episodes from the television program My Little Pony: Friendship is Magic. Additionally, the Treasurer must not have a history of accusations of financial fraud and should have a grasp of generally accepted accounting principles (GAAP).

Officers shall be elected by the Board of Directors by a two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote at any time and each Officer may hold office until he resigns, is removed or otherwise disqualified to serve, until his successor is elected and qualified, or until the next annual meeting, whichever occurs first.

Any Officer may be removed, either with or without cause, by the Board of Directors by a two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) vote, at any time.

Any Officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the Board of Directors or to the Head Pony In Charge or Secretary of the Corporation. Any such resignations shall take effect at the date of receipt of such notice or at any later date specified therein, and, unless otherwise specified therein, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

The above provisions of this section shall be superseded by any conflicting terms of a contract that has been approved or ratified by the Board of Directors relating to the employment of any Officer of the Corporation.

Any vacancy caused by the death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or otherwise, of any Officer shall be filled by the Board of Directors. In the event of a vacancy in any office other than that of Head Pony In Charge, such vacancy may be filled temporarily by appointment by the Head Pony In Charge until such time as the Board shall fill the vacancy as described in these Bylaws. Vacancies occurring in offices of Officers appointed at the discretion of the Board may or may not be filled as the Board shall determine.

The Head Pony In Charge shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the Corporation and shall, subject to the control of the Board of Directors, supervise and control the affairs of the Corporation and the activities of the Officers. He shall perform all duties incident to his office and such other duties as may be required by Law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, or which may be prescribed from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Head Pony In Charge may preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors in the absence of the Chairpony of the Board. Except as otherwise expressly provided by Law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, he shall, in the name of the Corporation, execute such deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, checks, or other instruments that may from time to time be authorized by the Board of Directors.

In the absence of the Head Pony In Charge, or in the event of his inability or refusal to act, the Background Pony In Charge, if named, shall perform all the duties of the Head Pony In Charge, and when so acting shall have all the powers of, and be subject to all the restrictions on, the Head Pony In Charge. In the event there is more than one Background Pony In Charge, the specific order of succession shall be designated by the Board of Directors. The Background Ponies in Charge shall have other powers and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by Law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, or as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

The Secretary shall have charge of such books, documents, and papers as the Board of Directors may determine; shall keep, or cause to be kept, a true and complete record of all meetings of the Corporation; shall give, or cause to be given, notice of all meetings of the Corporation; shall keep, or cause to be kept, a record containing the names of all persons who are Directors of the Corporation and the names of persons entitled to participate in Corporate affairs. Such books shall be open for inspection as provided by Law. The Secretary shall, in general, perform all the duties incident to the Office of Secretary subject to the control of the Board of Directors and shall perform other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors.

The Treasurer shall:

- Prepare, or cause to be prepared, and certify, or cause to be certified, the financial statements to be included in any required reports.

In general, perform all duties incident to the Office of Treasurer and such other duties as may be required by Law, by the Articles of Incorporation, or by these Bylaws, or which may be assigned to him from time to time by the Board of Directors.

Upon the request of the Secretary or Treasurer, the Head Pony In Charge may, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors, appoint an Assistant to perform those duties assigned by the Secretary or Treasurer. In the temporary absence or disability of the Secretary or Treasurer, after providing notice to the Board of Directors, the Assistant is authorized to execute the duties of the Secretary or Treasurer as appropriate. The Assistants shall have other powers and perform other such duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors. Any Assistant may be removed with or without cause at any time by their supervising Officer, the Head Pony In Charge, or the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors may from time to time award certain friends of the Corporation with honorary titles as it may deem prudent to advance its missions and goals. Such honorary titles shall not carry any obligations, powers, or duties within this Corporation.

Officers shall serve without compensation for their services as Officer except that they may receive reasonable reimbursement of expenses incurred in the performance of their duties as Officer. Any payments to Officers for services performed in a capacity other than as Officer shall be approved in advance in accordance with this Corporation's Conflict of Interest policies, as set forth in these Bylaws.

Officers shall keep in an orderly way all documents and records relating to their responsibilities and duties and shall deliver them to their successor at the expiration of their term of office.

The Corporation may have two types of committees: Standing Committees that address ongoing needs of the Corporation and Special Committees that address tasks, issues, or needs of a shorter term or finite duration. Each committee shall prepare and maintain a written plan of work that has been approved by the Board of Directors. No committee is authorized to make binding decisions for the Corporation that are not within its approved plan of work. At each regular meeting of the Board of Directors, there shall be a verbal report from each committee.

Committees or subcommittees may be established by the Board of Directors as deemed necessary for the efficient operation of the Corporation. Each Committee thus created shall advise the Board of Directors on matters related to achieving the stated missions and goals of the Corporation. The Board of Directors shall establish such committees by appointing a single individual to serve as the head of the committee or subcommittee.

The head of the committee shall provide a list of people they trust to serve on the Committee to the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may then approve or modify that list as needed. Standing Committees must be headed by a current member of the Board of Directors. The majority of the persons on each committee must be Directors. All members of each committee serve at the pleasure of the Board of Directors.

Committee members shall serve until they resign or are removed or are otherwise disqualified to serve, or until their successor shall be appointed, whichever occurs first.

Committees may adopt their own procedural rules so long as they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws and procedures of the Board of Directors.

An Annual Meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held each year for the purpose of electing Directors and Officers and transacting such other business as may be required. This will normally be during the month of November, but shall be no more than fourteen (14) months following the previous Annual Meeting.

Regular Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be implemented in a cadence as decided by the Board in order to transact normal business.

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairpony of the Board, the Head Pony In Charge, the Background Pony In Charge, the Secretary, the Treasurer, by any Director, or, if different, by any person specifically authorized under Florida Law to call special meetings. No notice need be given of any annual meeting held on the date, place, and time specified in these Bylaws.

No notice need be given of any regular meeting held in the manner as determined by the Board of Directors. In the event a new series of regular meetings is established, then Directors shall receive seven (7) days' prior notice specifying the date, place/means, and time of such meeting. In the event the date of a regular meeting must be changed, a majority of the Board of Directors must agree in writing and such agreement shall constitute notice of the new meeting date.

Two (2) days prior notice of any special meeting of the Board shall be given to each Director. Such notice shall state the place/means, date, and time of the meeting and the matters proposed to be acted upon at the meeting.

Any notice required hereunder shall be given in by electronic transmission. Such notice shall be delivered to each Director via the means and address provided by the Director to the Corporation specifically for the purpose of valid notice hereunder.

Whenever any notice of a meeting is required to be given to any Director of this Corporation, a waiver of notice in writing signed by the Director, whether before or after the time of the meeting, shall be equivalent to the giving of such notice. A Director who is present at any meeting and who shall not have protested prior to the meeting, or at its commencement, to the lack of notice, shall be deemed to have waived notice of such meeting.

The location of all meetings shall be subject to approval by the Board of Directors.

Except as otherwise provided under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of Law, any one or more members of the Board or any committee thereof may participate in any meeting, annual or special, of the Board or such committee by means of telephone, Voice over IP (VoIP), or similar communications equipment allowing all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other at the same time. Participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.

Meetings of the Board of Directors shall be presided over by the Chairpony of the Board or, if no such person has been so designated, or in his absence, the Head Pony In Charge of the Corporation, or in his absence, by the Background Pony In Charge of the Corporation, or in the absence of each of these persons, by a Chairpony chosen by a majority of the Directors present at the meeting. The Secretary of the Corporation shall act as secretary of all meetings of the Board, provided that, in his absence, the presiding officer shall appoint another person to act as secretary of the meeting.

Each duly elected Director shall have one vote. Proxy voting shall not be permitted.

Public attendees of these meetings shall not have access to any audio recordings made. Consent shall not be granted to any public attendee to record the meeting and any such recording may be a violation of Chapter 934 of the Florida Statutes.

All minutes and other records of meetings shall be made available to the public unless objection is made by two-thirds ( $\frac{2}{3}$ ) of the Directors and/or Officers present.

Except as otherwise provided under the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, or provisions of Law, any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors or a meeting of a committee may be taken without a meeting if:

1. each of the Directors, or each of the members of the committee, as the case may be, consents in writing to the action;
2. the consent sets forth the action to be taken; and
3. the consent is filed in the minutes of the proceedings of the Board or of the committee.

The consents may consist of one or more writings and such written consents shall have the same effect as a unanimous meeting vote.

The Board of Directors, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, may by resolution authorize any Officer or agent of the Corporation to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the Corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances. Unless so authorized, no Officer, agent, or employee shall have any power of authority to bind the Corporation by any contract or engagement or to pledge its credit or to render it liable monetarily for any purpose or in any manner.

The Board of Directors may adopt, use, and at will alter, a Corporate Seal. Such Seal shall be kept at the principal office of the Corporation. Failure to affix the Seal to Corporate instruments, however, shall not affect the validity of any such instrument.

Every Director shall have the absolute right at any reasonable time to inspect and copy all books, records, and documents of every kind and to inspect the physical properties of the Corporation, and shall have such other rights to inspect the books, records, and properties of this Corporation as may be required under the Articles of Incorporation, other provisions of these Bylaws, and provisions of Law.

The Board shall cause any annual or periodic report required under Law to be prepared and delivered to an office of the State of Florida or any other entity, to be so prepared and delivered within the time limits set by Law.

Whenever a Director or Officer has a financial or personal interest in any matter coming before the Board of Directors, the interested person shall

1. fully disclose the nature of the interest, and
2. withdraw from discussion, lobbying, and voting on the matter.

Any transaction or vote involving a potential conflict of interest shall be approved only when a majority of disinterested Directors determine that it is in the best interest of the Corporation to do so and the transaction was fair and reasonable as to the Corporation at the time the Corporation enters the transaction. The minutes of meeting at which such votes are taken shall record such disclosure, abstention, and rationale for approval. The Corporation shall comply with all other State and Federal laws governing conflicts of interest applicable to nonprofit and charitable organizations.

Each Director, principal Officer, and member of a committee with governing board delegated powers shall annually sign a statement that affirms such person:

2. Whether partnerships, joint ventures, and arrangements with management organizations conform to the corporation's written policies, are properly recorded, reflect reasonable investment or payments for goods and services, further charitable purposes, and do not result in inurement, impermissible private benefit, or in an excess benefit transaction.
